

SSC's airport firemen upset over changes

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Firemen refused Wednesday to go to work at Stennis International Airport, giving the new airport manager some 13 minutes' notice of their walk-off before two charter jets were to land.

Bill Stovall — less than two weeks into his job as airport director — said he did the only thing he could do under the circumstances: he jumped into the rescue truck and manned it during the landings, which turned out to be uneventful.

One firefighter, Thomas Bilbo, said he warned Stovall the planes should be diverted to Gulfport, given the lack of certified firefighters on hand during the landings. Stovall said he didn't talk with Bilbo until after the planes had landed.

The planes weren't diverted, he said, because there were four fully-certified fire rescue personnel on hand at Phillip's Aviation, the fixed base operator adjacent to the terminal.

Stovall acknowledged he's not qualified to fill a firefighter slot personally, but noted that Bilbo himself was at the airport and would have been called upon if an emergency had developed.

By nightfall, Stovall had lined up three substitute firemen to be on duty when the Casino Magic and Jubilee Casino gambling junket jets took off. He said all landings and departures would be similarly covered by qualified personnel.

Waveland voters turn to primaries Tuesday

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
The Democratic and Republican primary elections for the citizens of the City of Waveland are set for Tuesday.

All voting for Waveland's candidates, Democratic and Republican, will take place at the Waveland Library, located on Coleman Avenue. Polls are to be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

In the race for mayor, there are two contenders in each, the Democratic and Republican primaries.

It will be Curtis P. Colson Jr., Waveland Alderman and businessman, versus Keith Mitchell, Waveland city official and businessman, in the Democratic primary for mayor.

In the Republican primary, John C. Mason, local businessman challenges Stan Weidman, Waveland Alderman, for party nomination.

The victors of the Democratic and Republican primaries for mayor will then be in a three-way race with Independent Jack Toomey, to be settled in Waveland's general election on Dec. 6.

In Waveland's Ward One, Democrat John Thomas Longo and Republican Richard R. Fitch are unopposed. They will be challenging Independent incumbent Barbara Rappold in the Dec. 6 general election.

Three are seeking the Democratic nomination for Alderman in Ward 2.

They are, Lester G. Green Jr., Robert G. (Bob) Hubbard III, (incumbent), and Aline B. Keating. The victor will face Republican Jay Fleuriet, who is unopposed in Tuesday's primary in December.

Seeking Ward Three's Alderman Democratic nomination will be Daniel Ray and Louis

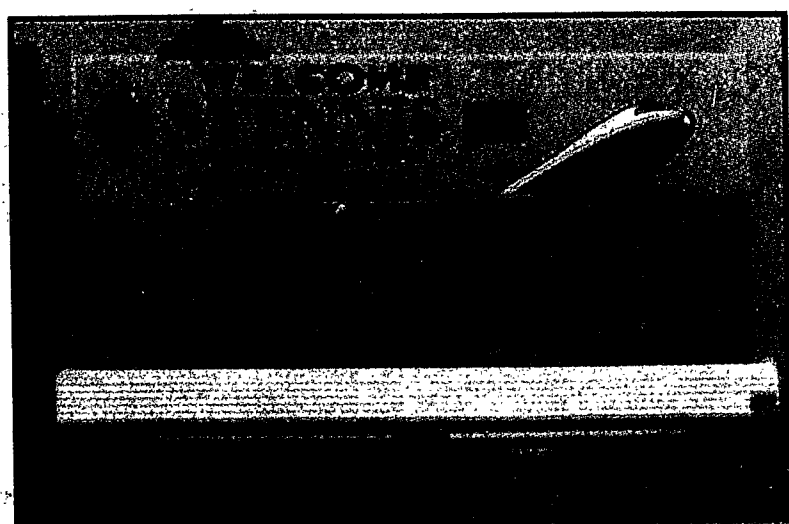

Smolensky. That winner will be challenged by unopposed Republican Ralph L. West Jr. and Independent Clarence R. Harris in the Dec. 6 general election.

Ward Four has two seeking the Democratic Alderman slot, W.E. (Bill) Cross and Al Kingston Jr. The winner will face unopposed Republican Richard C. Bessey in December.

The Democratic Executive Committee has two unopposed candidates on Tuesday's ballot, Milton Bernard and Mary Kay Hubbard.

The Republican Executive Committee has three unopposed candidates on Tuesday's ballot, Thomas W. Kidd, David P. McConnell and Gordon Embry Stone.

See Waveland Primary Sample Ballots and poll workers on Page 8-A.

Stennis International Airport is sprucing up their image with a new sign, which was installed early last week. Hancock County Port and Harbor Director Hal Walters said that he feels that the new sign will improve the first impression that visitors receive when they are arriving or leaving the airport. ## New airport manager sees challenges ahead

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Bill Stovall says he sees his new job as director at Stennis International Airport as "a huge challenge to fine tune a wonderful facility."

Stovall, a native of Kilgore, Texas, began his job in late October. He was tapped from some 65 to 70 applicants screened by the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission.

Before taking the local position, Stovall was aviation director for four years in Garden City, Kansas, a facility he said that is similar to Stennis.

During his tenure in Kansas, Stovall said he was able to secure $10 million in federal grants for airport improvements, beefing up the airport to handle an influx of casino-related flights.

The 46-year-old Stovall said Stennis faces many of the same challenges, with a significant impact of casino-related flights. Stennis was in need of "professional airport management, and that's what I'm trying to do."

Stovall was educated at the University of Maryland and Northeastern Louisiana State, and holds a degree in airport management.

He and his wife, a native of St. Joseph, La., have five children.

Where to Vote Tuesday

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Both Waveland's Democratic and Republican qualified electors will be voting in the Waveland Library on Coleman Avenue Tuesday.

Hancock Countians voting in the general election will vote at their respective precinct locations.

Waveland voters casting ballots in the general election (Senate, Congress, judges, etc.) will also vote at their regular voting precincts.

They are: Arlington, Dicks St., between the railroad tracks and U.S. Highway 90; Waveland West, Waveland Elementary School, St. Joseph Street; or Waveland East, Waveland Library, Coleman Ave.

Electors residing in the Hancock County School Districts will vote at their regular precinct. Since the school board and supervisor district lines are not the same, voters will be given proper ballots at their regular precinct, according to information from Hancock County Circuit Clerk Pamela Metzler's office.

See precinct locations for Hancock County General Election voting on Page 6-B.

Waveland's primary election votes will be counted at the library after the polls close.

All of Tuesday's general election ballots will be counted at the Hancock County Courthouse in Bay St. Louis.

Polls are to be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Shooting spree lands one in jail

BY CHARLEE MARSHALL
Russell Benjamin Choppelle, 18, of Willma, Ala., was charged by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department Saturday with aggravated assault on police officers, said Sheriff Ronnie Peterson.

He is being held without bond in the Hancock County Justice Facility, after a shooting incident Friday night at Waffles Plus restaurant on Hwy 603 South near Interstate 59.

Allegedly, Choppelle went on the shooting rampage after having a squabble with his 16-year-old girlfriend, Peterson said.

Investigator George Burleson recounted the events that led to the shooting spree. Apparently, the couple left their homes in Alabama, taking firearms with them, and traveled to Birmingham, Ala., Gulfport and New Orleans, where they had been visiting prior to the argument, he said. They left the car a short distance from Waffles because Choppelle had jammed the key in the ignition.

While the girl was occupied in a phone booth near the restaurant, Choppelle started firing with a 12-gauge shotgun, Peterson said.

One blast hit a car and

Lott and Taylor face challengers

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Incumbents United States Senator Trent Lott (R), and United States Congressman Gene Taylor (D), face opponents in Tuesday's general election.

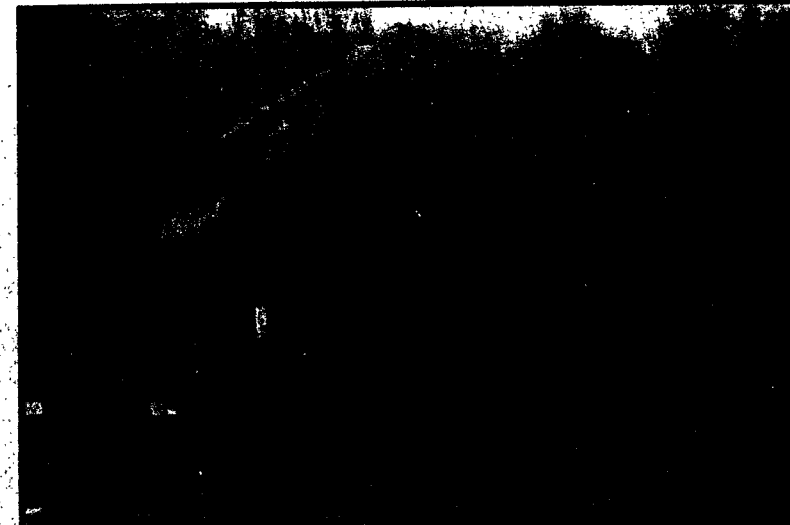

Lott, of Pascagoula and Washington and the Republican incumbent, is being challenged by Democratic nominee Ken Harper, a Vicksburg attorney.

Lott served in the House of Representatives from 1973 until his election to the Senate in 1988. Harper was a State Representative from 1984 until December 1991.

Congressman incumbent Taylor of Bay St. Louis, a Democrat, is being challenged by Republican nominee George Barlos, an Ocean Springs attorney.

The walk-off apparently was prompted by Stovall's decision to realign duties and operations of the airport's fire department.

In the shuffle, Stovall removed J.C. Webber as chief of the department, but retained him as head of training operations.

In addition, Stovall is moving to staff the department with six full-time firemen, rather than continuing to pay for what he says is an excess level of part-time staffing for takeoffs and landings.

At the airport Wednesday night, Stovall questioned the ethics of the usual firefighter staff in deciding to walk off the job with such little notice. "Firemen have a moral obligation to their fellow human beings," he said there are more appropriate means available to handling a personnel dispute than to abruptly refuse to show up for duty.

Payroll for part-time personnel has varied from 12 to 18 firemen, Stovall said. Most of the firemen also hold duties with volunteer fire departments elsewhere in the county.

Stovall said his decision concerning Webber was based on logistics — Webber is chief of the NASA fire department at Stennis Space Center. Stovall said he's had trouble contacting Webber when he's needed at Stennis International Airport.

Stovall said he planned to have a battalion chief operate the airport fire department on a daily basis, administratively under Stovall. Webber would continue to direct airport firefighters' training programs.

Meanwhile, Stovall said the airport can't financially support the staffing arrangements of the past. Under the old system, six firefighters would report for duty an hour before a scheduled landing or departure.

Stovall said Gulfport-Biloxi Regional Airport operates with two firefighters on duty at any time. He plans to have three on hand at Stennis International Airport for takeoffs and landings.

The new director said he had offered six full-time positions with full benefits to the existing personnel.

"I want to provide this city and county with the best fire protection within the dollars we have," said Stovall. Savings from the changes, he said, will be pumped into training.

Webber was not reached for comment.

Bilbo and several other firemen who walked off the job Wednesday were at the airport that night and again on Thursday, apparently awaiting some overtures from Stovall. Bilbo said he had contacted the Federal Aviation Administration and U.S. Rep. Gene Taylor's office concerning the Wednesday incident.

Ironically, Bilbo did not contest Stovall's contention that a three-man firefighter team is sufficient to have on hand during takeoffs and landings. "He's right. We could get by with three." A staff level of six is probably excessive, said Bilbo.

But the firefighters are looking for "fair treatment" in the realignment process, he said, and are unsure over the salaries and benefits that would be offered in a full-time scenario.

The controversy may burn itself out or otherwise be resolved during an upcoming lull at the airport — the facility is scheduled to close to all traffic between Nov. 28 and Jan. 15 while workers complete a $1.6 million resurfacing and striping process on the runway.

Port and Harbor Commission chairman David McDonald declined to discuss details of the firemen's dispute. He praised Stovall, however, as a highly qualified, competent airport manager, and said he was selected as the top candidate from 65 to 70 applicants for the job.

"We have great confidence in his ability to operate the airport in a capable and competent fashion," McDonald said of Stovall.

Changes involving personnel, said McDonald, are often accompanied by "mumbling and grumbling" among those affected.

A letter outlining firefighters' complaints was released Friday, addressed to the commission, the county Board of Supervisors and county residents generally.

Aside from contending that the two Wednesday flights should have been diverted to an alternate airport, the letter complains that:

Firefighters have to use "condemned" equipment, to the detriment of safety.

Firefighters use their own bunker gear and personal vehicles, in addition to buying their own medical supplies, office equipment and supplies.

All emergency medical training is paid for by employees, in addition to lost time on the job for training.

Firefighters have performed maintenance and improvement projects at the airport for two years, and have been told they'll be doing more of the same in the future.

The firefighters said they regard the new personnel plan as amounting to an increase in work and decrease in pay.

Ten names, including Bilbo's, are listed at the bottom of the correspondence.

another a wrecker parked nearby. Customers and employees in the restaurant either dropped to the floor or ran toward the back of the business while Choppelle continued firing on the building and the adjacent motel. Twenty two random shots were fired, the sheriff and investigator said.

The occupant of the car that was hit, a young woman, went to alert Mississippi Highway Patrol officers conducting a nearby roadblock. Two patrolmen arrived on the scene. Choppelle fired on the patrolmen, who fired back with shotguns and revolvers, wounding him in three places. The injuries were superficial, Burleson said.

Sheriff Peterson expects that more charges will be filed in the case.

Investigator George Burleson and investigators with the Mississippi Highway Patrol, including Curtis Newman, are in charge of the case.

Keith Mitchell The Right Man At The Right Time for Waveland First

Waveland is facing the challenges of an exciting future. We need a strong, energetic Mayor like Keith Mitchell who is committed to Waveland First. For Keith Mitchell, Waveland First is a personal commitment to put the people of Waveland...now and in the future...First.

As the Director of Community Development for Waveland, Keith Mitchell knows firsthand the real needs of this city. Through the years, he has listened to and worked extensively with the people of Waveland. He is running for Mayor because many of those same people, impressed by his decisive actions, helpful attitude and in depth knowledge of Waveland, urged him to take the leadership position of the city. They knew how much more he could do for Waveland as Mayor. Waveland needs a man with Keith's vision, and leadership ability. It is clear that Keith Mitchell is the right man at the right time for Waveland First.

Keith Mitchell is responsible for putting money back into your pocket by getting involved in FEMA's Community Rating Program. He is responsible for establishing a database of available funding for the special needs of our city's citizens. He has solved many problems by bringing in grant money and assuring the continuation of valuable programs such as R.S.V.P. And thanks to Keith's efforts, grant monies are already on the way to make major improvements to Elwood Bourgeois Park including a second baseball diamond, new tennis courts, and handicap accessible play equipment.

Working closely with the business community, Keith Mitchell knows better than anyone that our current businesses are the foundation on which a successful future rests. Keith's plan includes the retalization of the downtown area and our Civic Center. His dedication to our past will ensure that any revitalization will polish and promote, rather than replace, the existing charm. Keith will assure that new business growth compliments our current businesses and is compatible with our community's best interest.

Waveland First has always been a way of life for Keith Mitchell. He has been a vital part of the positive growth and development of many of Waveland's youth, as a little league and soccer coach, and through his involvement with many social programs. A sixth generation native with four children of his own, Keith Mitchell is committed to a future Waveland in which all of our children will be proud to raise their own families one day. Waveland First is his investment in that future.

Keith Mitchell has proven his value to the city of Waveland. He has worked long and hard to ensure its success through his involvement and his ability to bring people together for the common good of Waveland First. Keith Mitchell is clearly the right man at the right time for Waveland First. Waveland needs the full time leadership of Keith Mitchell as Mayor.

It's important to vote Tuesday

These elections are very important for the citizens of Waveland and all of Hancock County. All qualified electors need to take the time to go to the polls and cast their ballot for the candidates of their choice.

Remember, the polls are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Precinct locations are printed elsewhere in this issue of The Echo.

Sample ballots are also printed for you to review the races and to see who the candidates are.

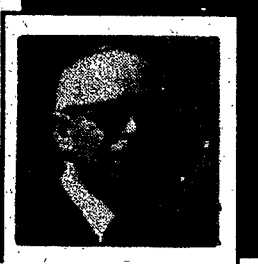

The general election will be held for such very important positions as United States Senate, United States House of Representative, State Supreme Court judge, two Court of Appeals judges, four Chancery Court judges, four Circuit Court judges and a House Concurrent Resolution dealing with the proposal to establish a state grand jury for criminal cases, five Hancock County School Board seats, two County Election Commissioners, in addition to the City of Waveland's Democratic and Republican primaries.

There are some very strong competitions in many of the races, and every vote will count.

Call your neighbors. Remind them that Tuesday is election day and urge them to vote. You may even offer to take someone to the polls if they need a ride.

In recent years, several races in Hancock County and Waveland have been decided by just ONE vote.

Do your duty, vote Tuesday.

"CUEVAS" QUOTES

By Ellis C. Cuevas

The Hancock County Sheriff's Department just does not seem to be the same since the retirement of Chief Deputy Delbert Seay last week.

Seay had been in the department for 20 long years and was involved in numerous investigations from simple to very serious.

Multiple murders, muggings, armed robberies, burglary, rapes, arson, and the list of crimes continues in which Seay was involved in helping solve.

His expertise will be missed by the department, at the same time I am sure he will be around just in case someone needs a bit of help.

Over the years I worked on numerous stories with information from Delbert and he was always very thorough and professional in his releases.

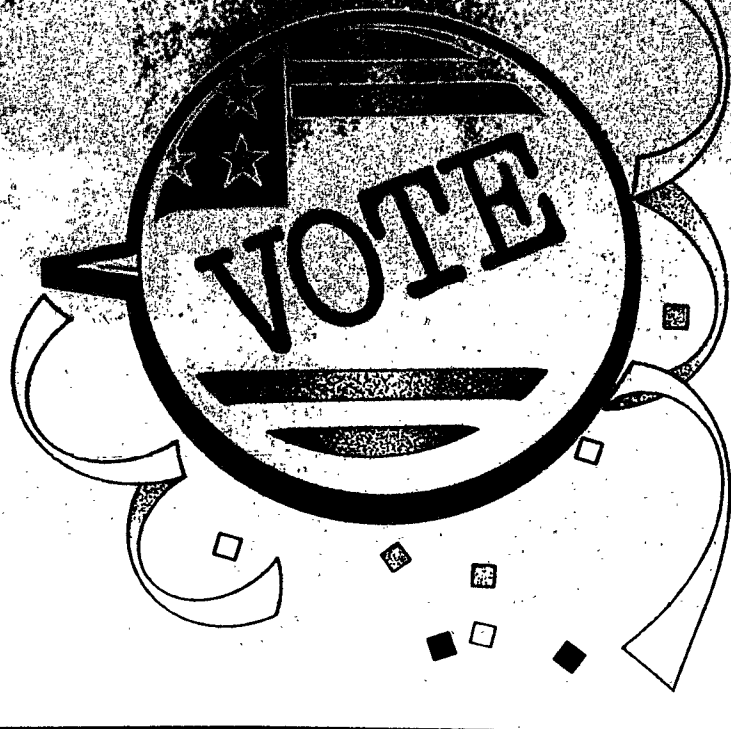

Times are changing very fast in Hancock County. Just 20 years ago, there were only two investigators with the sheriff's department, and today there are five.

We have more people in our area and we also have increased violations of laws.

I do wish Delbert the best in his retirement, I will miss seeing him as often as in the past, yet I know he really deserves to take it easy and plant his garden.

Good luck Delbert on your retirement.

P.S. I will be awaiting a nice ripe watermelon about July 1, 1995.

THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

A Weekly Editorial
From Mississippi Economic Council

Two sides to the 'Coin of Ethics'

The Mississippi Economic Council has made the struggle against excessive government one of its fundamental missions since MEC's inception in 1948.

There are many problems, such as high taxes and inefficiency, which are the result of big government. But far beyond these problems, the uncontrolled expansion of government has implications in many of the problems the American society now faces. One such area is government ethics.

In a policy statement on government and business ethics, MEC warns that "Excessive government — at the federal, state and local levels — affords opportunities to members of the business and professional community to seek personal gain to the detriment of the public good."

Today, it seems that this prophecy is coming true.

Rumors of political favors for this, and financial favors for that, have depleted citizens' trust of their national leaders to the point of almost complete public dissolution. And while MEC's policy on ethics espouses that "Public officials at every level of government should recognize their offices as 'public trusts' and should accept a higher standard of conduct than is required of other citizens," there is still another side to the coin of ethics that must be considered.

As members of a free and civilized society, the business community too, has a responsibility to be ever cognizant of its ethical responsibilities when dealing with government officials.

EYES ON MISSISSIPPI

By Bill Minor

It was great to meet the legend John Minor Wisdom

It was a remarkable occasion for me to have dinner recently with judicial legend John Minor Wisdom and his wife Bonnie on the celebration of their 63rd wedding anniversary.

Yes, this is the same John Minor Wisdom who was regarded as one of the chief household devils by diehard Southern leaders in the 1960s when he sat on the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals as a powerful force in the dismantling of the South's segregation system.

Now, at 89 Wisdom, one of the "Four" 5th Circuit judges credited with leading what one author has termed a "revolution" in the Old South that gave reality to the dream of civil rights equality conceived by the U.S. Supreme Court in its 1954 Brown decision.

Amazingly Wisdom, still sharp of mind and wit, often sits on cases as Senior Judge of the 5th Circuit and contributes his uncanny wisdom to the court's deliberation. The building that houses the court (which now includes the states of Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas) is named for him.

The idea of bringing us together for dinner — Judge Wisdom and myself — was that of a former Mississippian, Sandra Scarborough Kramer, now the wife of Tulane Law Dean John Kramer and close friends of the Wisdoms. It happened that Judge Wisdom and I had crossed paths years ago and he followed much of my writing during more than 30 years I covered Mississippi for the New Orleans Times-Picayune.

I had known Sandra when she was named Mississippi's "Miss Hospitality" in the late 1950s. Besides her beauty then when she came out of Meadville, Miss., it was apparent she was also a very bright, engaging person and a marvelous salesperson for the state.

Joining us for dinner was Jack Bass, a noted Southern author and now journalism professor at Ole Miss (now on sabbatical) whose 1981 book, Unlikely Heroes, told the little-known story of how four Southern judges — Wisdom of Louisiana, Elbert Tuttle of Georgia, John J. Brown of Texas, and Richard Rives of Alabama — brought down the legal walls of segregation.

What many today may have difficulty comprehending is that three of the four courageous judges were Republicans and appointees of President Eisenhower — Wisdom, Tuttle and Brown. Only Wisdom and Tuttle are still living.

Tuttle, a retired Brigadier General, was the chief judge and leader of "The Four." Wisdom, a New Orleans old-family patrician, was the brilliant intellectual leader of the group. Unheard of today, he was a liberal Republican whose compassion for the cause of blacks became a personal cause.

The get-together with Wisdom gave me a chance to tell him of the unforgettable experience I had with the late Mississippi Governor Paul B. Johnson Jr. back in 1962 when he was Lt. Governor at the height of the Ole Miss-James Meredith crisis.

The 5th Circuit Court of Appeals had found both Gov. Ross Barnett and Lt. Gov. Johnson in civil contempt and fined them for defying orders of the court to admit Meredith to the university. The court was considering criminal contempt charges against the two which could have meant imprisonment as well as fines.

Wisdom was considered one of the most adamant of the 5th Circuit judges about punishing particularly Barnett but Johnson as well.

Although Johnson and I, as then the Times-Picayune capital correspondent, had gotten along personally rather well in the past, he had become surly towards me as the Meredith crisis grew. One day during that time he and I found ourselves alone in his office and I asked him what he was particularly miffed about.

"I know what your cousin is trying to do to me," he said caustically.

"My what?" I said.

"Your cousin John Minor Wisdom," he shot back.

"What? He's not my cousin."

We're not related that I know of," I declared.

Apparently in the paranoia that existed in the state Capitol in those times, the fiction had sometimes become believed by Johnson and his associates that since Judge John Minor Wisdom was a Louisianian and New Orleanian, and I with the name Minor came out of the same area, we were related (as a matter of fact, my father Jacob Minor, was a Mississippian from Sardis who migrated to Louisiana).

Judge Wisdom got a big laugh out of the story and thereafter during the evening began calling me "cousin."

Although I had cleared the misinformation with Johnson back in '62 about my relationship with Judge Wisdom it did not dispel the antipathy towards Wisdom and his associates on the court felt by the Barnett-Johnson administration.

Wisdom had pushed hard for trying Barnett (and Johnson) for criminal contempt without a jury, an issue which even the 5th Circuit Court had to ask the U.S. Supreme Court to settle. It was not until 1965 that the high court spoke (against a jury trial but limited issues) and by then Barnett was out of office and Johnson had succeeded him as governor.

By then, the steam had gone out of the court's drive to pursue the Mississippi officials, although the feeling still persisted among several judges, Wisdom among them, that the defiance of the court's orders by a governor was a grave constitutional issue for which punishment was required.

A majority finally decided that it would not proceed with the criminal contempt and the civil fines for civil contempt were never collected.

Wisdom in a final dissent over abandoning the Barnett contempt proceeding, leveled harsh criticism upon the conduct of Barnett in the Meredith crisis, zeroing in on the rioting which broke out on the Ole Miss campus when Meredith was brought in by federal marshals on Sunday, Sept. 30, 1962.

Barnett, rather than providing moral leadership that the times called for, said Wisdom, "flouted explicit orders of this court, struck a blow against American federalism, and defied the nation."

Judge Grady Jolly of Jackson, one of Mississippi two members of the present 5th Circuit Court of Appeals calls Wisdom "an institution unto himself." Wisdom still can draft an opinion, he said, "as good as anybody on the court and better than most of us."

BREWER'S WORLD

By Jimmie Brewer

Good morning all you Hancock Countians. Time to count your blessings. You've managed to wake up to yet another fun-filled day in Paradise. It's time to get out of bed, check for intruders and start your day.

Jumpin' Jiminy Crickett, how about that dude in Diamondhead who protected his domain and his lovely wife by stopping that life-time criminal dead in his tracks last Sunday?

Rest assured, Mr. Bourne, that your actions are highly supported by this community and by Brewer's World. Not only that, you can take heart in knowing that you probably have saved others from being victimized by that monster.

I can relate a similar story that happened to me that had some very different results.

It was a cool fall night in Springfield, Missouri. I was snuggled in for the evening, tucked peacefully beneath my comforter. I was in a deep sleep, dreaming of greener pastures and slobbering on my pillow.

Suddenly, and without warning, lights flooded the room and I awoke to my roommate's screaming, "There is a man in the house."

Like most of us wannabe macho men, I had thought many times what I would do if the situation ever arose and thought I was fully prepared.

However, one look into the terrorized eyes of my roommate and my brain totally short-circuited. Before I knew it, I was charging down the hallway with my overfed, big, dumb, floppy-eared basset hound right on my heels.

I was still somehow hoping that the intruder would turn out to be a silhouette of the floor lamp brought to life by the rays of the moon that were creeping through the window. But as I turned the corner and found myself in the living room, I was confronted by a real dude who was standing not more than 10 feet from me.

Now here is the part of the story where I would like to be able to tell you that I took two steps, jumped over the couch, punched the dude in the nose, wrestled him to the ground, tied him up with telephone cord and waited for the cops to escort the gentleman to jail. That's not exactly how it happened.

Once I saw the dude, I looked down and realized, not only did I leave my 32-inch baseball bat under my bed, but I was standing there totally NAKED!

It was then that some physiological changes started to occur in my body. I began to sweat from parts of my body that I thought were incapable of perspiring. My legs felt as though they were made of jello and were stuck in quick sand, and the only sound that could be heard were my knees knocking together.

I don't know how long I lay there, but I can tell you that I was totally NAKED!

So I asked in my gut, "What the hell am I doing here?"

Then I began to yell obscenities and make growling noises in the back of my throat, much like my dog who was standing next to me, and appeared to be stuck in the same quicksand as I was.

The guy must have thought I was totally nuts, as I heard him say, "Wow, did I ever pick the wrong house," as he bolted out the door. I was still unable to move when the police showed up an hour later, but fortunately my roommate had draped a robe around me.

Praise for do-gooders this week goes out to the Bourne family. Peace!

ON PATROL

BY SHARON K. SAUCIER

A Pass Christian man is currently in the Hancock County jail without bond and is facing 43 counts of uttering forgery.

Kevin Wright Mosely, 19, 211-B Henderson St., was arrested after allegedly stealing checks and going to a local convenience store and signing the owner of the checks name to them, Bay St. Louis Detective Shane Corr said.

Mosely is also a parole violator out of Tampa, Fla., who was on parole for grand larceny, Corr said.

BY CHARLEE MARSHALL

Kirk Abshire, 27, of Ashley Manor in Bay St. Louis was arrested Monday, Oct. 31 for the burglary of a residence on Dunbar Ave. on July 3, said Bay St. Louis Detective Shane Corr.

Taken in the robbery were a VCR and a radio. The VCR was recovered, Corr said.

Abshire was released from the Hancock County Justice Facility after posting a $5,000 bond.

Detective Tom Burleson of the Bay St. Louis Police Department reported the arrest of Jason Newell, 18, of Rt. 1, Box 34-G, Carriere, MS.

He was charged with grand larceny for the theft of a car stereo, Wednesday, Oct. 26, on Felicity St. in Bay St. Louis. The stereo was recovered, Burleson said.

Newell was released from the Hancock County Justice Facility after posting a $1,000 bond.

Richard J. Rogers, 33, of 15210 Marion Dr. in Gulfport, was arrested and charged with two counts of uttering forgery and two counts of perjury, reports Detective Shane Corr of the Bay St. Louis Police Department.

Rogers is also wanted by the Florida Department of Corrections and the District Attorney's office in Jackson County, MS, Corr said.

Rogers is currently being held in the Hancock County Justice Facility without bond, Corr said.

Curtis P. "Phil" Colson, Jr. "MAYOR"

A Candidate For The PEOPLE

Curtis P. Colson, Jr. is a candidate that has the formal education for City Planning. He has established a comprehensive plan for the future of Waveland which includes a representation of the People. He will begin his administration by establishing an "open-door" policy.

Curtis is a businessman and he understands the need to establish a working relationship with the community and the importance of sharing ideas. He has walked door-to-door throughout the city and he understands the concerns of the People.

Curtis has conducted a positive and efficient campaign that concerns the "issues" of Waveland and realizes that the City of Waveland does not have time for a trial and error government. He is committed to serving the People. Curtis is a candidate with a sound track record and is ready to go to work.

Curtis is determined to provide "BASIC SERVICE" for our communities which includes:

1. A Comprehensive Drainage and Street Improvement Plan and will implement without delay.
2. A Trash Pickup Service and a Recycling Program.
3. He will Implement Plans to Improve and Expand city services for both residential and commercial growth.
4. He will Restore the Civic Center and continue to Improve our Parks and Promote Youth Activities in our community.
5. He will Promote the use of The Garfield Ladner Pier and Implement plans to develop a small crafts harbor which will be located by the input of the Citizens of Waveland.
6. He will Assist the Beach Committee with their planning and implement plans to provide pedestrian and parking facilities along the Beach.
7. He will Establish city assistance for Neighborhood Watch Programs and Coordinate Drug Prevention Programs.
8. He will Respond to department needs to improve our Fire and Police protection.
9. He will Implement a "City-wide Beautification" program.

Curtis will set a new direction and incorporate policies that satisfy our future concerns. He will initiate a plan for both short and long term growth which includes:

A plan to promote Waveland's marketability and our greatest asset which is the undeveloped land.

Curtis will also implement plans for improved zoning regulations that will enhance the single family residence and establish an improved commercial corridor along Highway 90. This will guarantee the serenity of our existing neighborhoods and increase the city's income of ad valorem taxes and also the sales tax base.

PLEASE VOTE ON NOVEMBER 8th FOR CURTIS P. "PHIL" COLSON, JR.
"MAYOR" - CITY OF WAVELAND

Submitted to and approved by Curtis P. "Phil" Colson, Jr. Paid for by Friends.

A proven leader in our community. He has worked toward improving the recreation and business "image" of the City of Waveland. He has strived with great success in working with our community leaders and he has gained the confidence of the government leaders of our area. He will implement changes in the city government and establish an "open-door" policy.

Curtis P. "Phil" Colson, Jr. is a lifelong resident and successful local businessman of Waveland. He attended Bay Senior High and Pearl River Junior College where he studied Pre-Architecture. Curtis, a graduate of Louisiana State University, School of Environmental Design, earned a Bachelor Degree in Urban Development, and Feasibility Studies of Potential Growth for Cities. He has successfully authored several feasibility studies as well as contracts and proposals involving government agencies.

As a result of his experience and educational background, Curtis is uniquely prepared to perform the duties of mayor for the City of Waveland. Curtis will bring to the City of Waveland a new direction in city governing policies. He will not leave his responsibilities and duties to others and there will be a distinct difference in his "ADMINISTRATION".

The Battle of Shiloh, the bloodiest battle in American history, was fought in 10,000 places along a 1,000-mile front. Beginning in 1861 and ending in 1865, this war claimed more American lives than all wars to follow combined.

To many Americans, the Civil War is nothing more than a vague memory from their days in history class, a memory which pits blue against gray in a conflict from some seemingly ancient era.

Fact is, the Civil War occurred less than four generations ago and in our own backyard. Many of its soldiers' grandchildren and great-grandchildren are still alive today.

Fighting occurred in such places as the city of Pass Christian and the Gainesville community in Hancock County. Bay St. Louis contributed the Shieldsborough Rifles to the group of fighting men from familiar local families, such as the Fayards, the Johnsons and the Farves.

The Civil War saw the last of the Napoleonic tactics of men marching shoulder-to-shoulder in a line of battle until they were, at times, within shouting distance of their enemy. In these lines men would fire 58-caliber musket barrages, often at point-blank range with devastating results.

What was it like? How did it feel to experience marching headlong into cannon and musket fire from hundreds, even thousands of opposing troops?

Spread across all America, there exists a group of people who strive to re-live this very experience. They are Civil War re-enactors.

On almost any given weekend of the year, somewhere in this country a Civil War re-enactment is taking place.

Recently, a weekend event was held at Beauvoir in Biloxi, home of Jefferson Davis. Several hundred soldiers and spectators gathered to re-live a moment in history.

Re-enactments usually begin on a Friday afternoon in some remote area. Re-enactors from surrounding states will gather to set up their white canvas tents, build their fires and corral their horses for a weekend of military encampment, daily drill and portrayals of historic battles.

Military protocol is followed according to period regulation. From the buck privates to the colonels and generals, everyone is transformed to life in another time.

As night falls the campfires glow amongst the relaxing soldiers discussing plans for the next day. Musicians with period instruments strum out Irish-flavored folk songs written during the war.

Saturday morning starts early as the lone bugler plays revelry to awaken the soldiers.

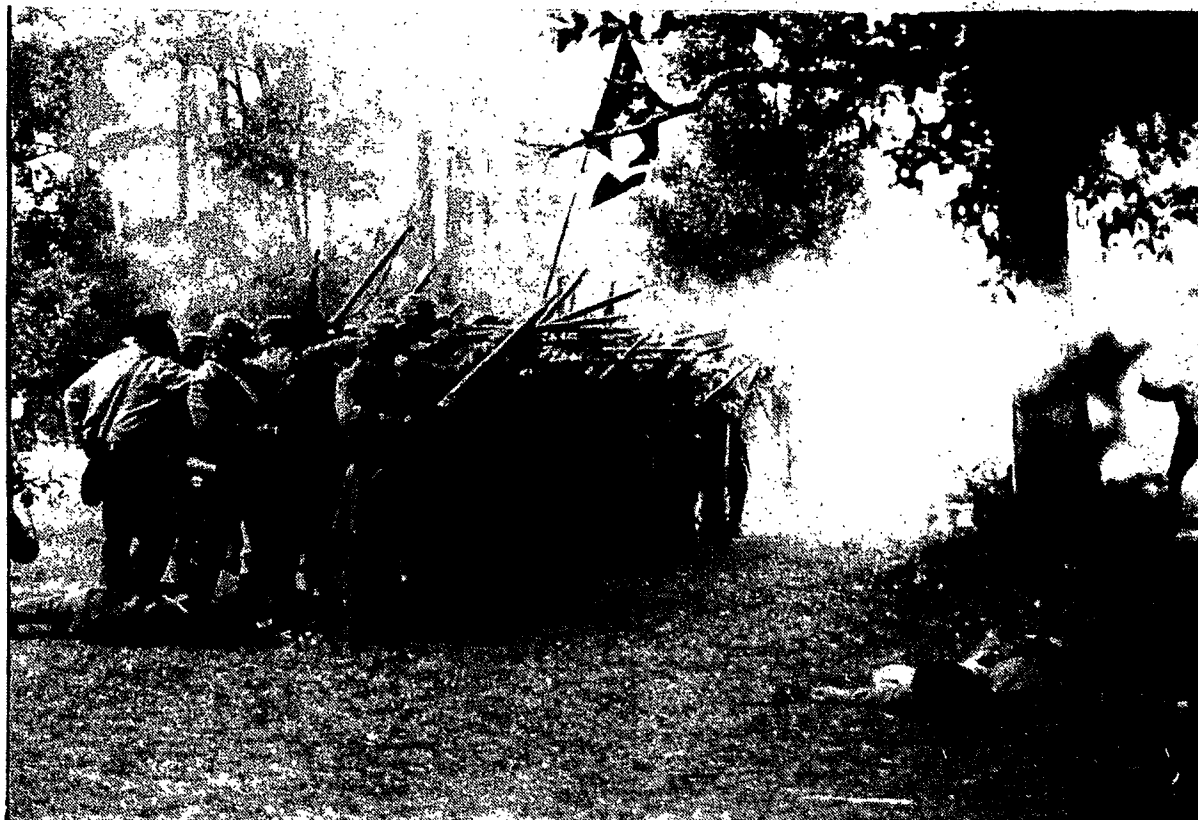

As the camp stirs in the morning fog, women in some units stoke the fires and prepare the meals.

Wealthier families during the Civil War attempted to stay together, even on long campaigns covering hundreds of miles. Camp followers, wives and sometimes even children of well-to-do soldiers and officers would follow the army on its march, helping with the everyday chores of camp life.

After the flag raising ceremonies and mornping

The blue line of Union forces attacks Confederate positions

Rebel troops repel the attack announcements, an officers' call is arranged to discuss the day's battle plan.

A re-enactor's day is filled with many of the chores of military camp life. Everything from gathering firewood to weapons inspection is covered in the activities.

In the afternoon sun, the battle begins.

The first shots come in the form of a surprise attack by the Union artillery. Deafening thuds ring out as smoke billows from the battery positions behind the tree line.

Confederate soldiers muster together, grabbing their rifles and belts, scrambling to form lines of battle.

Orders are belted out over the sounds of cannon fire, now thundering from both sides of the battlefield.

Union soldiers march out of the woods into an open field and begin firing on the Confederate camp.

A Rebel gun crew bravely wheels a mountain howitzer cannon into the middle of the field and opens fire on the advancing enemy.

Caught in a deadly crossfire and attacked by sabre-wielding Union cavalry, the Rebel cannoniers are forced to flee the field, leaving their gun to Yankee hands.

The commander of the Rebel forces orders the Confederate States Marine Corps Company D and a company of dismounted Rebel cavalry to retake the gun and bring it back.

The Confederate soldiers rush headlong into the Union troops. Firing and yelling the entire way, they decimate the Yankee company and retake the cannon.

The Union forces fall back and are routed into the woods. Most are either downed by musket fire or captured by the Rebel soldiers.

The field is strewn with bodies and the prisoners are marched back to the Confederate camp.

As the order to resurrect is given, the wounded and killed rise up to a cheering crowd. The battle is over.

The whole ordeal takes only about 30 minutes but to the re-enactors it is what makes the entire weekend worthwhile.

The chance to re-live what life may have been like and to honor the memories of those who fought and died on both sides is what re-enacting is all about.

The Beauvoir re-enactment is a yearly event and usually occurs in mid-October. Beauvoir itself, however, is open all year and has a permanent museum displaying many Civil War artifacts.

Please support this local treasure by paying a visit you will never forget.

The Rocks won the toss and elected to receive the ball. Brooks Quinlan, a senior half-back, scooted for 6 yards and Brandon Benoit gained a short 4 yards to open the game with a first down in two plays.

The Rocks outgained the Blue Devils and played inspired defense to give the Blue Devils a game they won't forget. The Rocks gained 284 yards of total offense, while PRC had 240 yards. The Rocks threw three crucial interceptions that halted Rock drives.

The Rocks won the toss and elected to receive the ball. Brooks Quinlan, a senior half-back, scooted for 6 yards and Brandon Benoit gained a short 4 yards to open the game with a first down in two plays.

Junior fullback Chris Middleton busted through the line for a gain of 7 yards before senior signal caller Nate Middleton hit Benoit for a gain of 12 yards and another Rock first down.

Nate Middleton kept on an option and scampered 44 yards to the Blue Devil 10-yard line. The Rocks lost the ball on a handoff and recovered it for a loss of 5 yards.

The Rocks couldn't gain much on the next few plays and decided to go for it on fourth down. Benoit had an impressive run dodging blockers; however, he gained only 7 yards. The Rocks turned the ball over on downs.

PRC got the ball deep in their own territory. Running back Damon Walker took the handoff for 6 yards up the middle on PRC's first play.

Danielle Jefferson gained 10 yards running through the Rock defense. Raphael Tillman rushed for 2 yards before he was stuffed by David Bell and Max Lee.

PRC was penalized and the Rocks moved them back. With a second and long situation, Tillman hit Anthony Neudeck for a gain of 14 yards and a first down before Derek Bradley ran him out of bounds. Ty Trahan scampered for 5 yards before Quinlan dropped him.

The Blue Devils seemed to run right through the porous defense of the Rocks. Neudeck ran for 10 yards, Walker added 8 yards, and Jefferson added another 5 yards. However, on the next play David Bell stripped a PRC runner and Joe Fertitta recovered.

The Rocks took over deep in their own territory. Junior Corey Gex came in to lead the Rock attack. After a minimal gain by Brooks Quinlan, Gex hit a streaking Freddie McPherson for a 25-yard gain. Benoit had back-to-back minimal gains. The Rocks went back to the air and were intercepted by PRC's Robert Shoemake.

Walker ran for 5 yards and then broke a gain of 23 yards before being run out of bounds by Jerry Polk. Tillman then hit Neudeck for a gain of 9 yards down to the Rock 4-yard line. Damon Walker punched the ball in for the Blue Devils from 4 yards out. The PAT by Doug Dresser was good and with 5:56 left in the second quarter the score was 7-0.

The Rocks took the kickoff to the 20-yard line and on the second play of the drive fumbled the ball to PRC. The Blue Devils recovered on the Rock 16-yard line.

Jefferson had a moderate gain of 5 yards before Tillman went back to the air. Tillman hit Robert Shoemake for a 15-yard TD strike with 4:12 to go in the half. The two-point conversion was no good after an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Blue Devils, leaving the score at 13-0.

The Rocks took the kickoff to their own 14-yard line. The Rocks could not move the ball and went three plays and out. Brooks Quinlan punted to the Blue Devils.

It took the Blue Devils only one play to capitalize on the good field position. Tillman hit Neudeck for a 25-yard TD strike with 1:52 left in the half. The PAT attempt was no good, and the Blue Devils led 19-0.

Tyree Haynes took the kickoff and returned the ball 32 yards to the Rock 43-yard line. Nate Middleton was back in at QB and hit senior Kyle Whitman for a 13-yard gain and a first down. Brooks Quinlan ran for 3 yards more as the half came to an end with the Blue Devils ahead 19-0.

The Rocks went in at the half and make some serious key adjustments. SSC came out in the second half and stopped PRC on their first possession, forcing them to punt to the Rocks.

The Rocks got the ball at the PRC 43-yard line but could not capitalize offensively. The Rocks punted back to the Blue Devils.

Ty Trahan tried to get the Blue Devils going by scampering 7 yards before being brought down by Eric Knight. The Rock defense held strong and the Blue Devils had to punt. PRC faked the punt but Jerry Polk came up for the Rocks and made the stop.

The Rocks took over almost at midfield. Tyree Haynes ran for gains of 2 and 7 yards. PRC was called for offside, which gave the Rocks a first down. Then Middleton went back to the air and hit a streaking Brandon Benoit for a 44-yard juggling TD catch with 3:46 to go in the third quarter. The two-point conversion from Middleton to Quinlan was good, making the score 19-8.

PRC's Robert Shoemake returned the ball to the 40-yard line for the Blue Devils. Walker gained 6 and 7 yards, respectively, before being brought down by Max Lee both times. Jefferson gained 9 yards up the middle and Walker ran off tackle for a gain of 7 yards. Tillman ended the third quarter with an 8-yard run around end.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, PRC fumbled to Rock LB Max Lee on the Rock 23-yard line.

Benoit had a 15-yard gain, but on the next play the Rocks fumbled right back to the Blue Devils. The Blue Devils had the ball at the Rock 39-yard line.

Jefferson rambled for 24 yards. Walker ran the ball in for a TD from 15 yards out on the next play. Tillman ran the ball in on the two point conversion. With 10:33 to go in the game, the score was 27-8.

The Rocks took the kickoff at the 20 and had a 24-yard gain by Benoit, negated by a holding penalty. Then, Robert Shoemake intercepted the Rocks at the 39-yard line.

The Blue Devils went to the air as Tillman attempted a pass to Shoemake that was broken up by Benoit for the Rocks. The Blue Devils could not muster much and fumbled the ball on the Rock 12-yard line. The Rocks recovered.

Gex came in to lead the Rocks' final possession. Tyree Haynes had a gain of 3 yards and then Gex hit a wide-open Freddie McPherson for a gain of 13 yards.

Gex went back to the air after back-to-back penalties to connect with Quinlan for a gain of 27 yards. Haynes scooted for 11 yards and another Rock first down.

...the Warriors, but the game ended up Warriors 35, Tigers 19.

Tiger coach Walt Eastlinger said of their season, which ended at 3-7 and 1-6. "We had a lot of bad things happen to us, but we learned to fight back. We played the best we could — we played hard."

The win for the D'Iberville Warriors helped to make them the Division 8, 4-A champions, as East Central won over Long Beach Friday night.

Bay High, starting the game with the first possession, capitalized quickly. Only 41 seconds into the game, Tiger Xavier Lewis ran for a 38-yard touchdown. The PAT by Wali Shabazz was no good, but the Tigers were in the lead 6-0.

The Warriors mounted a drive that lasted 10 plays and advanced the team 81 yards, then capped the offensive with a quick pass from Jeremy Forehand to Weldon Galle for a 21-yard touchdown.

The PAT was no good, and the score was 6-6.

On the kickoff by D'Iberville, Bay High fumbled the ball and the Warriors recovered. They line.

Warrior wide receiver Carl Pride advanced the ball to the Tigers' 1-yard line.

lead to 28-13.

Bay High didn't let it stop there: With 10:25 left in the game, Lewis scored on a 32-yard run.

The two-point conversion failed and the score was 28-19.

The final points of the game came from a Daniels 20-yard run followed by a successful PAT attempt.

After the game, the Tigers listened intently to the comments of their coach and assistant coaches as each one said what they thought of the team's efforts — that the players had guts and that the coaches loved them.

D'Iberville will host South Pike in the opener of the 4-A playoffs next week.

didn't have the ball for very long, though. Shabazz intercepted the ball for a 80-yard return and a touchdown.

Shabazz also kicked the extra point, and Bay High was line, but didn't stay there long. Warrior quarterback Forehand threw his second touchdown pass of the first half with a 48-yard reception by Galle.

D'Iberville attempted a two-point conversion, but failed. The score was now 13-12.

On Bay High's next possession they were unable to advance and were forced to punt, but a clipping call against the Warriors gave Bay High the first down that they needed.

Warrior Kelly Swanzey intercepted a Shabazz pass and was stopped at the Tigers' 20-yard line. Then, with 9:48 on the clock, Forehand went in for the D'Iberville touchdown, and Chris Daniels ran in for the two-point conversion to put D'Iberville in the lead 20-13.

On the Tigers' next possession they were again intercepted by the Warriors.

The Tigers then intercepted a Warrior pass to return the favor.

With 5:03 left in the third quarter, the Warriors scored again on a 10-yard Daniels run. He also added the two-point conversion to bring the Warrior

Rocks

SSC tried their bread-and-butter play, the hook and lateral. Gex hit McPherson for a gain of 10 yards and he lateraled to Haynes, who gained another 8 yards on the ground.

Three plays later the Rocks were intercepted at 7-yard line by PRC's Desmond Robinson.

Shane Kirkland, an offensive tackle, came in at the fullback position and ran for 4 yards. William Graham ran the clock out with a 7-yard gain to end the game. The final score was 27-8.

The season ended for the Rocks, but on a promising note. This game, along with the progress of the season, showed that the Rocks have a lot of promise for next year. A lot of younger kids have received some valuable experience for next year.

Coach Brannon LeBlanc commented, "I want to thank all my coaches this year, and especially the fans at SSC. They came out to support us each week."

"Our kids never gave up and showed a lot of character through the season. We never gave up this year and we're not going to in the offseason."

He continued, "I think we played the best defense tonight that we played all year. We still had critical turnovers at the wrong time that continue to plague us. We showed we can play good enough to win. We showed that the program is definitely turning around. Brandon (Benoit) showed great character and concentration with his TD catch tonight."

Benoit ended the season with 922 yards rushing, well over 1000 all-purpose yards, and a Coast high of six TD receptions. Nate Middleton ended his season with a Coast high of 15 TD passes. Brooks Quinlan was second on the Coast with five TD receptions.

The Rocks ended the season at 1-10 but with lots of returning lettermen and promise for next year.

Hancock received the ball to start the game, but was unable to advance past the 45-yard line and was forced to punt.

Antonio Carillo put the ball deep into Yellow Jacket territory with a 42-yard punt that put St. Martin at their own 19-yard line to start.

St. Martin got the ball and took most of the time off the clock with their long possession.

The Yellow Jackets earned five first downs with averages of almost 6 yards per carry.

The Hawk defense, with strong help by Jason Chighizola and Kent Malley, worked hard to try to stop the Yellow Jacket offense.

But with 1:05 left in the first quarter, St. Martin scored on a 1-yard run by Aaron Tapper to put the first points on the board.

The PAT by Brad Malagarie was good and the score was 7-0 St. Martin.

Hancock started their possession strong and worked their way into Yellow Jacket territory with the help of a 33-yard run by Billy Lee.

Hancock junior halfback J.J. Hay worked his way to the Yellow Jackets' 1-yard line, but St. Martin's strong defense held the Hawks. Hancock lost possession on downs with 7:55 still to go in the second quarter.

The St. Martin squad took over at its own 1-yard line, advanced to the 5 and was forced to punt following a fumble in the end zone by quarterback Andrew Caprari, who picked the ball up and threw it with no one downfield to catch it.

Because of this, St. Martin was penalized and was forced to punt.

Hancock took over deep in St. Martin territory at the 25-yard line.

Sophomore quarterback Chad Peterson, on the third snap of the ball, ran the 16 yards into the end zone for the Hawks' first score.

Carillo's kick was good, and the score was tied at 7-7 with 4:06 left in the half.

St. Martin still had time to score again before halftime and they did. With 28 seconds left in the half, Tapper ran 3 yards into the end zone for another Yellow Jacket touchdown.

The PAT by Malagarie was no good, and the score was 13-7 St. Martin.

The third quarter was pretty quiet for both teams and was pretty evenly matched as far as time of possession.

The Yellow Jackets had first possession, but were unable to advance past their own 30 before they were forced to punt.

Hancock earned three first downs and worked down to the Yellow Jackets' 7-yard line.

There, Carillo kicked a 23-yard field goal to make the score 13-10 with 3:13 left in the third quarter.

St. Martin's possession went into the fourth quarter and, within seconds of beginning the quarter, ended in a touchdown.

The two-point conversion attempt was no good and the score was 19-10.

It was a see-saw match for both teams for several more possessions in which both were forced to punt.

Then, with 3:30 left in the game, St. Martin put the finishing touches on the game with an 18-yard touchdown by Roheem Moore. A kick by Malagarie made the final score 26-10.

The Hawks end their season 3-8.

11-play

The Pir

Bobcats

...the game was a real nail-biter. All eyes were on whether or not they could beat the 8-4 Sumrall Bobcats.

During the first half of play, there was no question as to who dominated. The Bobcats racked up 21 points in the first two quarters, while the Pirates remained scoreless.

In the second half, though, Pass Christian rallied, scoring two touchdowns and a two-point conversion. However, missed cues and intercepted passes stopped the Pirates short in the 21-15 loss.

The Bobcats received the opening kick of the game and mounted an 11-play drive that ate up 4 1/2 minutes of game time and resulted in a score on a run by Darrell Jackson. The kick after was good, making it 7-0 with 7:32 left in the quarter.

The Pirates answered with an eight-play offensive, started by Ricky Lewis on the Bobcats' kick return. He received the ball at the Pirate 15 and ran it out about 15 yards, where he their own 27, and forced Sumrall to punt after the first three plays of the second quarter.

The punt went out at the Pirate 25.

Again it was Hatchet, Lewis and Biggs who carried to move the Pirates to midfield. However, the drive stalled, forcing a kick of the second half. Lewis took the ball just outside the end zone and ran another reverse to Ward, who advanced to the 15 before he was tackled.

The Pirates ran eight plays, but were hindered by two penalties and were forced to punt from their own 25. Lucas made Biggs gained a yard, but a Pirate penalty backed the ball to midfield. Lewis, back in at QB, nearly was sacked in the backfield on the next play, but he saved the play with a shovel pass to Anderson, who moved to the Sumrall 47.

The fourth quarter started as Lewis fired off a pass to Biggs, who advanced to the 35 for a first down. Lewis kept on the following snap, but lost 3 yards.

A pass to Ward fell incomplete, and the next pass was intercepted by Bobcat Montez Gaddis at the Sumrall 32.

The Bobcats advanced to the 36, then lost 5 on a penalty and were forced to punt. The ball went down at midfield.

Biggs gained 2 yards for the Pirates, then Ward caught a pass to put the Pirates at the Bobcat 24. Another pass went incomplete; a third try at moving the ball through the air failed as Waters intercepted it and moved it back to the 20-yard line.

A Bobcat penalty on the play put the ball back at the 10-yard line, then a Pirate penalty on the next play moved the ball out to the 30. After a 1-yard gain, the Bobcats fumbled.

The Pirates recovered at the Bobcat 30, then put the ball in the end zone on a pass to Ward. The PAT kick was good for a 21-15 score with 4:43 left in the game.

The Bobcats made it to their own 30 before being forced to punt. The ball went out at the Pirate 43 with 2:08 left in the game.

With their last shot at winning within reach, the Pirates pushed across midfield to the Bobcat 45, then attempted a pass that — had it succeeded — would have tied the game.

It was not to be. Bobcat Gene Hauck intercepted the ball with about a minute left in the game. The Bobcats ran a couple of plays just to run out the clock, and the game ended 21-15 Sumrall.

The Pirates finish the season with a winning record of 7-4 overall and 3-2 in district action.

Run-around

made a reverse handoff to Leonard Ward. Ward ran the ball to the Bobcat 30.

Lewis, Darrell Biggs and Raynoid Hatchet ran the ball on the next several plays, moving the Pirates down to the 2-yard line. The Bobcats held firm, though, and forced a turnover at the 4-yard line.

Sumrall initiated another 11-play drive that took the game into the second quarter. The Pirate defense kept the Bobcats from advancing beyond punt. A Pirate penalty on the punt moved the ball back to the 40, where it was rekick. It landed on the 50-yard line.

The Bobcat offense kicked into gear again, using Jackson and Brent Waters to advance to ball down to the 1-yard line and into the end zone in 11 plays. The point-after kick was good for a score of 14-0 with 2:45 left in the half.

On the Bobcats' kick return, the kicker missed the ball, which dribbled off the tee for about a yard. The Pirates ended up with possession at the Sumrall 40.

Unfortunately, the Pirates weren't able to capitalize on the mistake. Their first play, a pass, was stopped by Bobcat Waters, who intercepted the ball downfield and ran it back up to the Sumrall 35.

Jackson gained a couple of yards on the next play. A Pirate facemask penalty at the line of scrimmage moved the ball to the Pirate 48.

Bobcat Kevin Mauldin gained another couple of yards, and a Pirate late hit penalty put the ball on the 30. Bobcat Mitchell Lucas took it from there, running the ball in for Sumrall's third and final score of the night. The kick made the score 21-0 with 1:02 to go in the half.

The Pirates ran five plays in the final minute of the half, but were unable to score.

They received the opening a sliding fair catch at the Pirate 48.

The Bobcats made three plays, advancing to the Pirate 16. There, they handed the Pirates their first touchdown.

A fumble occurred; Ward scooped the ball up and took off, racing back downfield for the score. A flag was thrown down near the line of scrimmage; much to the delight of Pirate fans and players, it was against the Bobcats. The Pirates' two-point conversion pass succeeded by a hair, making the score 21-8 with 5:33 to go in the third quarter.

The Pirates returned with an inside kick that the Bobcats fumbled, but recovered. Sumrall tried in vain for six plays to advance, then punted from their own 44. Ward returned it to the Pirate 38.

Biggs gained 4 and 8 on the next two plays for a Pirate first and 10. Keith Anderson, in as quarterback, gained 4 on the next play, on a sweep right.

THE CRIMINALS ARE ON THE STREETS...

If you feel like a prisoner in your own home, Oliver Diaz wants to do something about it!

For seven years as a State Representative Oliver Diaz has listened and knows crime is our biggest concern.

As your conservative voice in Jackson, he has fought to abolish parole and plea bargains. His strong stand against drug abuse, child abuse and white collar crimes has earned him the respect of the law enforcement community. Now, Oliver Diaz wants to continue this fight against crime as your Judge on the Court of Appeals.

On November 8th vote for Oliver Diaz and take the criminals off the streets!

ACCOMPLISHMENTS •

- Approved building Garfield Ladner Pier.
- Supported keeping rangers on pier to insure safety of our children and residents.
- Installed street lights. • Maintained and black-topped roads.

"One of the projects I support is the renovation of the Civic Center. Many worthy organizations such as the Waveland Players, Humane Society and St. Vincent dePaul could utilize this building."

The Chef of the Coast annual Mississippi Coast Restaurant & Beverage Association's Gumbo Extravaganza will be held 4 to 10 p.m. this afternoon at the Coast Coliseum. Among the Hancock County chefs to participate are from right, Debbie Plache, The Reef, Waveland; Terry Newkirk, Bayou Caddy Jubilee; Susan Kidd Blache, Suraine's, Waveland and Hester Plache, secretary-treasurer, Mississippi Coast Restaurant & Beverage Association. Casino Magic's Torgy's will also be joining the 51 participants. The local chef's specials are, The Reef, Eggplant Kiki; Suraine's, Carrot & Cheese cake; Jubilee, Bayou shrimp & pasta; and Torgy's, Hunan chicken, Chocolate pralines. Tickets for the benefit will be available at the door for $35 each. Proceeds from the Extravaganza will go to the association's scholarship fund. (Echo staff photo by Ellis C. Cuevas)

It's an excellent choice for a buffet luncheon or supper, and just as tasty when quickly assembled for one or two or a few more diners. Here's:

Approximately 1 lb. pork tenderloin, cut into strips or chunks as you choose. (You may also use pork cutlets or center chops, cubed or in strips).

1/4 cup oil (or use cooking spray)

Flour, milk for batter
1/4 cup vinegar
1/2 cup syrup from can of pineapple chunks

Pineapple chunks
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
5 Tblsp. brown sugar
1 Tblsp. cornstarch

1 Tbsp. water
1 ball (green) pepper, in rings or chunks
Small piece of ginger, or dash of powdered ginger
Pepper, salt to your taste
Cooked rice (hot)

Cut the pork, as mentioned above, into chunks or strips and coat with batter. Heat the oil, or spray the pan, and brown the pork. Drain the skillet of any oil, and set the pork aside. Combine the vinegar and syrup, add the mustard mixed with the brown sugar, then add ginger.

Blend the cornstarch with the water and add to the pan. Bring the mixture to a boil, stirring madly, and cook for 3 or 4 minutes.

Set aside while you saute the pepper rings or chunks in a bit of oil.

Toss the pork and pineapple chunks, top with the sweet and sour sauce, and simmer for several minutes. Serve over the hot cooked rice, (4 to 6 servings)

At times I substitute chicken for the pork, equally tasty.

During the past two months, KEITH MITCHELL has run a campaign for MAYOR based on one pledge, "To put WAVELAND FIRST by doing the very best job I can possibly do."

By drawing from past business and personal experiences, both positive as well as negative, and incorporating these experiences into the mayor's office, KEITH MITCHELL can make Waveland city government the most efficient and productive governmental service possible.

His opponents, on the other hand, have chosen to run on the negatives. By slinging mud, they show a sure sign of one thing: the people of WAVELAND will get more of the same! Politics as usual, power plays and the ineffective government that comes from negative politicians.

We are proud to endorse KEITH MITCHELL for mayor, and ask the good citizens of Waveland to do the same. Vote for KEITH MITCHELL in the November 8, Democratic primary.

On November 8, vote for a progressive, positive leader who will give the people of Waveland positive leadership, not negative excuses.

Coast Newcomers Club

Coast Newcomers Club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the Waveland Resort Inn in Gulfport at 11 a.m., followed by a luncheon. The club will have a presentation on the Mississippi Gulf Coast in 1699. The club has been in the Coast in the past three years. Contact: Pam Williams at 863-5552 or Judy Holder at 863-5552 for information.

Coast Community Concert

Coast Community Concert elected new officers at its annual board meeting, including Ann Bode of Pass Christian. Herb Canathan of Gulfport was re-elected president and announced the Coast affiliate will host a regional conference in Biloxi April 22, 1995. The group will open its 1994-95 season Nov. 6 at 2:30 p.m. with a Cole Porter-Irving Berlin revue at Biloxi High School auditorium. The concert is for season ticket holders only.

Diamondhead Garden Club

The Diamondhead Garden Club met October 19 at the Diamondhead Community Center. The meeting was opened by president Cathy McFaul, who thanked Grace Finley for the lovely moonlight picnic at the Finley home where 61 members and guests gathered Sept. 29.

Lee Fredian reminded members of the Christmas Tour of Homes Dec. 19. Plans are to have four homes and two churches on the tour.

The club's Pilgrimage chairman, Annette Saucier, reported all is in place and all information is ready and has been turned in to the local council.

Brierley Acker reported that at a recent Mississippi Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs, the Diamondhead Garden Club was awarded first place for their scrapbook for clubs of their size. She also said the club received a certificate for being an honor roll club and certificates for five other projects, including a bird project headed by Jean Eakin. Other projects were bird and butterfly gardening, the Pilgrimage and community service.

Geri Garberg gave her horticulture tips. Favorite plants were brought by Margaret Williamson and by Nan Hall with explanations of care and feeding.

The speaker for October was Judy Evans, county agent from Wiggins. She presented information on planting gardens to attract butterflies.

Hancock Women's Club

The regular meeting of the Hancock Women's Club is Thursday, Nov. 10 at 11 a.m. at the Waveland Resort Inn with a luncheon to follow.

A silent auction will be held after the luncheon. There will be an assortment of donated gifts to bid on.

Fun and Games Day was well attended Oct. 26. Hostesses were Frances Thomas, Theda Fischer, Catherine McGuiness and Natalie Miller.

Due to the holidays in November and December there will be no Fun and Games days. They will resume in January.

Members are reminded to bring their auction items to Jo Anne Lagasse at her office in the RSVP room well before the meeting.

Theodore S. Price VFW and Ladies Auxillary 3253

On November 8, there will be a national election in which Congressmen and U.S. Senators will be elected.

Your Constitution gives you the right to vote and select a candidate of your choice from both parties. Study the candidates. See what he or she offers to help keep this nation great.

Keep veterans' rights in mind and a great national defense when you pick your choice. This is your right and your responsibility. So celebrate the future. Keep patriotism alive by going to the polls on November 8 and live up to your duty as an American and your love for your country, because any change for a better future begins with your vote.

Theodore S. Price Post and Ladies Auxillary 3253 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is promoting your right to vote November 8. The polls open at 7 a.m. If you need a ride to the polls, call 467-4974, and transportation will be provided.

Remember we have freedom through our veterans. Remember we must fight for their entitlements through your vote.

WW I Veterans Auxiliary No. 2537

The World War I Auxiliary 2537 held its monthly luncheon and meeting Oct. 27 at noon at the American Legion 139 club house on Green Meadow Road.

Evelyn Perre, president, presided. Hostesses were Shirley Clemmons, Mattie North and Perre, who introduced the special guests, national president Ethel K. Davis and husband and senior vice president Elizabeth Melchi and Pauline Charping, national secretary and treasurer.

The meeting was called to order by Perre with the opening prayer by chaplain Ruth Milazzo.

Lucille Boudreaux, patriotic instructor, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Charping gave the treasurer's report.

A thank-you note was read from J. P. Smith for donations to the Biloxi and Gulfport hospitals fall carnivals.

Perre thanked Rose Jaquillard, Mamie Carver, Shirley Clemmons and Tuleter Oliver.

J. P. Smith and Elmer Dickens, hospital volunteer service directors, presented national president Ethel K. Davis with a Mississippi ceramic magnolia made by the veterans in the VA hospitals.

They also welcomed Davis on behalf of all the service she does for World War I veterans in hospitals.

She thanked the WW I auxiliary for the hospitality shown her and vice president Melchi while on the Coast.

A thank-you note was read from the Gulf Coast Battered Women's Shelter for clothes donated by the auxiliary to the center, an estimated 150 pounds valued at $800.

A letter was read by Perre from Trent Lott of World War I legislation.

Tuleter Oliver announced she has set up a scholarship fund for students in honor of Genevieve Cole. Anyone wishing to donate, the account is at Hancock Bank. You may donate to the Pearlington Cemetery Fund or to the Books of Remembrance of the United Methodist Church of Main Street in her honor.

Call Pat Wilson at 533-7790 for the cemetery, and the church office, 467-4538, for the Book of Remembrance.

After the meeting national president Davis installed officers for 1994-95:

President, Evelyn Perre; senior vice president, Mamie Carver; junior vice president, Shirley Clemmons; secretary-treasurer, Pauline Charping; chaplain, Ruth Milazzo; and conductress, Rose Jaquillard.

Since the November meeting falls on Thanksgiving, there will be no November meeting.

On Dec. 22 at noon will be the Christmas party. Please bring a gift of $5 to exchange.

National Executive Housekeepers Association

Bay Junior High school honors by Duke

Seventeen seventh grade Bay Junior High students qualified for the 1994-95 Talent Search for mathematically and verbally advanced students.

Sponsored by Duke University's Talent Identification Program (TIP), the Talent Search Program identifies highly capable students from a 16-state region in the South, Southwest and Midwest.

To be eligible, students must have scored at the 97th percentile or better on an in-school achievement or ability measure.

In December, January or February these students will take the Scholastic Aptitude Test or the ACT assessment normally taken by college-bound juniors and seniors.

Many of these students score as well as or better than the average college-bound senior on these measures. All participants will receive certificates of merit, and some may become eligible for statewide recognition ceremonies or a variety of educational programs.

TIP, established in 1980, has provided thousands of students with information about their abilities and educational

Talent Search Program

St. Thomas youth group celebrates with party

St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Diamondhead, with the help of the Diamondhead Youth Group, held its fourth annual "Mostly Ghostly Party" on Sunday, Oct. 30.

Halloween pumpkins that the St. Thomas youth group and their leaders had carved the Friday night before the party decorated the church grounds.

Children of Diamondhead attending were entertained by L. David Porter of Biloxi as "Krackles the Clown" and by the magic tricks of Joe Caccioppo, also of Biloxi.

Prizes were given for many games and for costumes. The visitors enjoyed the apple bobbing, the coloring contest, the cake walk and many other activities.

All are welcome to attend the services at St. Thomas on Sunday mornings at 8 and 10:30 and on Wednesdays at 7 p.m.

Community Resources Group meets Thursday

The Community Resources Group will meet at noon Thursday, Nov. 10 at Tortilla Bay on Court St. Kay Altese, form the Department of Human Resources, will be the guest speaker.

Concert
Coast Community Concert opens its 1994-95 season Sunday, Nov. 6 with a Cole Porter-Irving Berlin revue.

New members in Hancock County are reminded curtain time for the Biloxi High School Auditorium matinee concert for season ticket holders is 2:30 p.m.

President Herb Carnathan said the return performance of Tony Sandler once again features his guest singers and the Greg Thiesen Ensemble of musicians. Sandler and the group performed on the Coast several seasons ago with the highly successful tour of "An Evening with Lerner and Lowe."

The musical program is choreographed by Chris Winter Black, one of the original dancers in Sweet Christy on Broadway.

The Porter-Berlin revue showcases what is termed "some of the best songs and music" of these two American legendary popular songwriters, including such favorites as Blow Gabriel Blow, Anything Goes, There's No Business Like Show Business and Alexander's Ragtime Band.

Anderson Festival

The Peter Anderson Festival Nov. 5 and 6 has been a showcase for artists and artisans. ## Save Our Children Center is helping the needy

Children who participate in the programs at Save Our Children Center on Necaise are being asked to bring in donations of canned goods for the Hancock County Food Pantry, said Geraldine Lang, a volunteer with the center.

The food will be distributed to "those less fortunate" for the Thanksgiving holiday, she said.

The children were also asked to bring in toys for the fire departments' Christmas for Children project to be given to needy children.

Lang said that all contributions were welcome from those who attend the center, other children and their parents. She said Thanksgiving donations should be in by Nov. 19.

Story hour titles listed

'Insects' will be the theme for the children's story hour at the City-County Library in Bay St. Louis Wednesday, Nov. 9 at 10:30 a.m.

Zippy the Ant, In the Fire Night and Hi! are books to be featured. Children will see a fingerplay, make a bug, watch a video and receive refreshments.

'Owls' will be the theme at the Waveland Library Thursday, Nov. 10 at 10:30 a.m. Hood-Night Owls and The Owl Who Hated the Duck are books to be read. Children will receive a color sheet and refreshments.

'Why We Have Thanksgiving' will be the theme at the Kiln Library Thursday, Nov. 10 at 10:30 a.m. Running Bear's Thanksgiving, One Tough Turkey and Squirrel's Thanksgiving Surprise are books to be featured. Children will make a turkey and an Indian puppet and receive refreshments.

Weekly story hours are held September through May. Programs last approximately one hour.

The Kiln Library hosts a story hour every other Thursday at 10:30 a.m. The programs last approximately 30 minutes.

Programs and activities are designed for pre-school-age children 3 to 5 years old who are not part of a nursery or pre-school group.

For information, contact Winnie Vasquez, City-County Public Library, 467-5282; Sandra Ladner, Kiln Library, 255-1724; or Evelyn Necaise, Waveland Library, 467-9240.

AMENDMENT NO. 1
HOUSE CONCURRENT
RESOLUTION NO. 79

This proposed constitutional amendment authorizes the Legislature to enact laws establishing a state grand jury and authorizes such grand jury to return indictments in criminal cases regardless of the county where the crime was committed. The jurisdiction of a state grand jury is limited to drug offenses which occur in more than one circuit court district. Venue for the trial of indictments returned by a state grand jury shall be as prescribed by general law.

CLUBS, AUXILIARIES

Camellia Society

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Camellia Society is gearing up for its 43rd annual show in Gulfport this fall. Featured will be more than 1,000 blooms grown throughout the six southern states, and the viewing is free.

The exhibit will be at the West Side Community Center on Hwy. 90 Saturday, Nov. 19 from 2 to 6 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 20 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Southern Women's Club

The Southern Women's Club will meet Thursday, Nov. 10 at the Center for Women's Health in Long Beach at 9:30 a.m. Guest speaker will be Betty Martin from Family Court.

The club's donation will be items for a Thanksgiving basket. Any items such as flour, canned fruits and vegetables and boxed foods will be accepted.

There will be voting on Club Member of the Year. New members are Charlene Alston, Tricia Collins, Angela Dover, Chris Forbes, Sandy Foster, Holly Heinfeld, Debby Jones, Karen Morris, Sandra Parium, Glenda Poulous, Catherine Rusch, Jennifer Slonaker, Robin Weaver and Suzie Williams.

The annual Christmas luncheon will be Dec. 8 at the Great Southern Club.

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139

The annual Halloween party, sponsored by the Clement R. Bon-toms American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139 and the Hancock Medical Center, was Monday, Oct. 31 at the Hancock Medical Center.

Chairman Hazel Wohlschlegel and volunteers Shirley Clemons, Evelyn Perre, Charlotte Sellers, Roslyn Weathers and daughter Gale Brady, hosted the event.

Margaret Prevou and Bobby Tomlinson sent refreshments for the party. The auxiliary served some 150 children and parents.

The monthly sing-a-long sponsored by Unit 139 for the residents of Hotel Reed Nursing Center was Thursday, Nov. 3.

Lena Mae Oustalet played the piano and Roslyn Weathers led the singing of familiar songs. Pat Turnipseed and staff served refreshments.

Telephone book recycling curbside pickup set for Dec. 5-9

Plans are underway for the Mississippi Gulf Coast Telephone Book Recycling Drive. The drive is scheduled to kick off Nov. 10 and run through Dec. 9.

In 1993, the Telephone Directory Recycling Drive was successful in diverting 123 tons of phone books from local landfills. This success was due to the public/private partnership of local business and industry, government and area schools, both public and private.

In an effort to expand the program this year to be a true Mississippi Gulf Coast Telephone Directory Recycling Drive, Jackson County will be joining the campaign.

Area businesses and governmental entities, such as Hancock Bank, Peoples Bank, Merchants Bank, Mississippi Power, Coast Electric Power Association, Alcan Cable, Johnson Controls, BFI, Gulf Coast Recycling, Harrison County Solid Waste Management District, South Central Bell, Bapco, International Paper, First Chemical Company, Chevron, Ingalls Shipyard, The Sun Herald, The Sea Coast Echo, all coastal cities, the county supervisors of Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties and one of the most important, David Fayard's Ace Moving and Storage.

Without David Fayard, the books could not be loaded and shipped.

Coordinators expect more sponsors to join in as the campaign moves closer to kickoff.

In order to provide convenience throughout Hancock County, collection bins will be placed at the Hancock County Chamber office at 412 Hwy. 90 in Bay St. Louis, as well as in the Diamondhead Plaza Shopping Center on Aloha Drive in Diamondhead.

Curbside pickup in the city of Bay St. Louis will be the week of Dec. 5-9. All area schools will

CONSUMER UPDATE

Credit cards

By Jan Lukens, MBA, CFP
Consumer Money
Management Specialist

Q. I am 24 years old and have a good job. When I was in college, I was offered credit cards but never accepted them. Now I am trying to get one. However, I was denied because I have no credit record. Why am I penalized for not getting credit cards when I couldn't afford them? How do I get started building a credit history?

A. College students, yes, even high school students are inundated with credit card offers. However, if a student should postpone obtaining a credit card until he or she can really afford one, credit may suddenly be unavailable. Why? Creditors use a different set of criteria for judging the student card holder than their typical adult borrower.

Ruth Suswein, executive director of Bancard Holders of America says college students have become a "privileged class, entitled to credit in spite of the fact that they have no job, no income, and no way to show their ability to repay the debt. The credit card issuers' rationale for marketing to college students is to be your first card.

People hold on to their first card longer — typically about 15 years. Seventy percent of consumers carry a balance, thereby accruing interest charges. Credit card issuers stand to make a lot of money on college students who will probably keep the card and carry a balance for many years."

In addition, Ms. Suswein says "the market is so competitive that credit card companies are stealing customers from one another. A few years ago, with few untapped markets, they were looking for new customers. College students didn't fit the criteria to acquire credit but they were a very good potential customer who might stay with the company a long time."

Bancard Holders of America (BHA), a consumer organization dedicated to education on consumer credit issues, does not condone the marketing tactics on college campuses today. Suswein testified in March to a subcommittee of the U.S. House of Representatives on the hazards of issuing credit cards to students without first providing education on the use of credit.

Suswein gives an example that "we don't hand out driver's licenses without education first." BHA's request before Congress is education first, then benefits. They suggested two vehicles for providing credit education:

- 1) a required middle school class on personal finance with a section on credit and
- 2) a requirement that credit card issuers provide a seminar for college students as a prerequisite to issuing their credit card.

For young adults who have difficulty acquiring credit because they have no credit history, Suswein offers a few tips.

"Try applying for a department store card which is usually easier to acquire or get a secured credit card."

Some secured cards allow a deposit and credit limit of as little as $200. Many have graduation programs permitting borrowers to move up to an unsecured card.

Bancard Holders of America provides a listing of secured card issuers for $4. Issuers have been screened to verify that the banks are sound since consumers must place funds on deposit with the bank. The publication gives the interest charged on credit card balances, the interest paid by the bank on your deposit, the grace period and other fees charged by each creditor on their list. Their address is 524 Branch Drive, Salem, VA 24153.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

New restrictions for substance abusers who receive Social Security benefits

A new law passed by the Congress recently is designed to tighten control of disability benefits paid to those who abuse alcohol or drugs, Caril V. Stephens, manager of the Gulfport office announced.

"These rules are designed to halt many of the abuses of the program that had been identified in recent months," Stephens states. At the same time, it permits the payment to benefits to disabled people who want to overcome their addiction," Stephens said.

The Social Security Administration pays disability benefits to people whose mental or physical impairments prevent them from being able to work.

Drug and alcohol addiction are considered medically determinable conditions which may be by themselves or in combination with other impairments prevent a person from working. Claimants may collect benefits under the Social Security disability insurance program if they have enough prior work, or under the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program if they do not.

Stephens said the programs have been under public attack recently after it came to light that many substance abusers who collect benefits under these programs were simply using their checks to buy drugs and alcohol to feed their addictions.

In cases where large back payments were paid, there were cases of addicts actually dying from overdosing. Even when payments were made to a representative payee, addicts and alcoholics found easy access to the funds by threatening or cajoled the payee.

The issue has also been raised that these benefits should be tied to a treatment requirement, so that addicts may be rehabilitated and eventually become self-sufficient.

Under the SSI program, a substance abuser whose addiction is a contributing factor to disability must participate in a treatment program as a condition for continuing to receive benefits.

Under the Social Security disability insurance program, there is no such stipulation attached to the receipt of disability benefits.

In response to public concern over these issues and in order to ensure the integrity of these programs, Congress has passed the following provisions:

1) SSI and Social Security Disability Insurance payments will be limited to 36 months when substance abuse is material to the disability. The substance abuser will still be eligible for Medicare and Medicaid and any dependents (i.e. children) will still be able to receive benefits as long as the abuser continues to be medically disabled and meet all other eligibility requirements.

2) Recipients of both types of benefits will be required to participate in a treatment program, as long as it is available at an approved facility. The beneficiary must also agree to comply with the terms of the treatment and be monitored and tested.

3) Benefits are suspended if the substance abuser does not comply with treatment. Once benefits are suspended for non-compliance with treatment, the benefits could be started again once the person demonstrates that he/she has complied with treatment requirements for specified periods. Once the benefits are suspended for 12 consecutive months of non-compliance, the benefits will be terminated for good.

4) Referral and Monitoring Agency contracts will be established in each state so that beneficiaries may receive appropriate treatment, monitoring and drug testing.

5) Large sums of retroactive benefits will be paid gradually to substance abusers, except for those who have incurred debts to state general assistance programs, owe attorney fees, or are at high risk for homelessness.

6) The representative payee requirement will be extended to all beneficiaries under both programs whose drug or alcohol addiction is material to the disability.

Preference will be given to Social Service Agencies or federal, state or local government agencies in naming representative payees for substance abusers, unless Social Security determines that a family member would be more appropriate.

7) Organizations that serve as representative payees for substance abusers will be able to charge beneficiaries 10 percent of the monthly benefit or $50, whichever is less, for their services.

In addition, the law authorizes a study to be undertaken of the receipt of benefits by substance abusers. The findings of the study are due to Congress by Dec. 31, 1995.

JESUS IS ALIVE! REV. 1:18 - Rev. 22:17. A Finished Eternal Transaction. His consuming, purifying power, owner. Is your soul, spirit, mind thirsty for something in life that you haven't found? God offers all of us a Free gift. It's spiritual water. The Spring of Living Water. Are you sure that your sins are forgiven? Have you been to the Cross and said, "Lord Jesus, I have sinned. I am sorry for my sin. I am willing to change my way of life, and I come to you by faith. I don't understand it all, but by faith I receive you as my Savior and my Lord and Master"? Only Trust Him.

THANKS TO ST. JUDE FOR PRAYERS answered. J.M.K.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Advertorial

Shopping consignment is Shopping Smart

Lois Cox, owner and operator of Fashions Reborn, invites you to "Shop Smart, Shop Resale" in Slidell. Only 20 minutes from Bay St. Louis, Fashions Reborn offers a large selection of consignment fashions and accessories for the entire family. Before you purchase your bridal needs, be sure to come by and see the Bridal section at Fashions Reborn. Whether you are looking for that perfect Holiday outfit, children's clothing, or anything in between, you'll find it here. And the wide selection is not the only reason to visit Fashions Reborn.

Fashions Reborn carries brand names such as Liz, Girbaud, Guess, DKNY, Carole Little, and many more. Most items look brand new, and some of them are. Everything is well organized by style and general sizes, so you don't have to go through every item to find what you are looking for!

If you are interested in becoming a consignor, just give Lois a call for more information, or stop by to shop and see the quality of merchandise that is accepted for consignment.

"Our goal is to provide more services to our customers and to help people realize that shopping resale is OK", Lois said. "Stop in and see for yourself the values we have to offer". Fashions Reborn is located at 109 Northside Plaza (Hwy. 190 by Winn Dixie), Slidell, LA 70460. Or call (504) 641-8748 between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday.
